DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S

CHLORODYNE

Advice to Invalids.—If you wish to obtain quiet, refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary achings of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media, and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by Dr. J. Collis Browne (late Army Medical Staff), to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma.
CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.
CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation, and Spasms.
CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, &c.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5th, 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russell street, Bloomsbury, London. Dear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly esteemed medicine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a DELIBERATE BREACH OF FAITH ON THE PART OF THE CHEMIST TO PRESCRIBER AND PATIENT ALIKE. We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists.

CAUTION. Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the Inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, which, he regretted to say, had been sworn to.—See "The Times," July 13, 1864.

Sold in bottles at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9., 4s. 6d. and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

Caution—Beware of Piracy and Imitations.

THE IRISH TROUBLES.

The arrest of Mr. PARNELL, followed on Sunday by that of Mr. DILLON, means that the government have at last adopted a policy of action. It is impossible, at this remoteness from the theatre of tumult, to speak with confidence of the effect of the Land Act upon Ireland; but it would have been wisdom on the part of the agitators to have waited until the measure had had a chance. From the more recent speeches of the Irish agitators it is seen that the agitation has widened into a conspiracy which has for its object the throwing off of British rule. GLADSTONE'S government has gone to the utmost limit of concession. Their good nature has been strained to its greatest tension, and now that the struggle for independence has commenced they have no alternative but to act promptly and decisively. The wrongs of Ireland have been unquestionably great, and England has recently made large and important concessions. But the concession now asked for cannot and will not be granted.

Whiskey and Literature.

TO THE EDITOR:—A misfortune like that which has fallen on the liquid and cigars made by Chinamen I believe threatens literature. The multitude are readers and their tastes must be attended to. Newspaper proprietors and book publishers are aware of the fact and the result is appalling. Rigmarole in print is spreading like a flood. This is a misfortune truly deplorable, but it cannot be evaded. Reason must disappear and take its place with whiskey and coolie cigars in the dark shadows of a departed age. Macauley's New Zealander in the midst of a vast solitude on a broken arch of London bridge, sketching the ruins of St. Pauls, presents the mind with an awful picture of desolation. But imagine the last of "the Saturday Reviewers" on another arch of that same bridge looking for the ruins of Printing House Square, and in awe beholding on its site a superb palace containing "The Victoria Standard" and its editors; and these gentlemen directing and controlling the public opinion of England !!! A realization of Macauley's picture is impossible; but the other picture is more awful and may be realized. Newspaper proprietors and book publishers know that preaching to jackdaws in latin will never pay: Their desire is to get money: and to get it they must submit to the law which compels a supply to equal the demand. Rigmarole will inundate the world, and compared with it Noah's flood was nothing at all. Death in the wild waves of an angry ocean is not so awful as the death a sensible man suffers when he is smothered in an ocean of nonsense. It is horrible. I'd rather be buried alive under a mountain of moving rats.

With a trembling heart I hope I shall never see the Saturday Reviewer's report, [illegible]

I saw a copy of the Standard seven years ago. It was then like a dead duck, blurred all over, black with corruption, smothered in an ocean of words without meaning. It had arrived at that stage of decomposition that shocks a man of feeling. Its leading articles were like extracts from the laws of our local Legislature—intensely obscure. I had hoped that it was dead. But it lives. It was noticed last week in The Colonist. I called the attention of a friend to this fact and told him I thought the Standard was dead and buried. "Oh," said he "he was on its last legs, dying slowly and surely, but the editor of The Colonist keeps it alive. It he had ceased to notice it would have perished long ago." This hint deserves attention. As the organ of our local lawmakers it has a limited circulation in Victoria. Contractors take it to read the government advertisments. I know by observation and enquiry that its circulation on the Mainland is limited to men of that class and to a few ignorant scribblers who are well pleased to see their own nonsense in the middle of the mudpiles that are called leading articles and local news. Every time you notice one of these idiotic effusions you put a feather in the wing of the dying goose. I verily believe you do.

Reason and common sense must disappear before the demand of the multitude for nonsense: but you will be the last man in this Province to lower the grand old flag that represented for centuries the intellect that elevates the man above the multitudes of parrots who wear hats but who cannot perceive the difference between sense and nonsense. By letting it severely alone you can limit the circulation of the organ to its supporters in the city and they have ears of brass. If its horrible tunes fail to give them a physic, you cannot save us from the results of modern taste. A Standard like the organ, instead of the London Times, is an event sure to follow the flood of written rubbish. In the taste of the multitude you can see the shadow of future events.

DIOGENES.

On the Horse.

TO THE EDITOR:—The following remarks are from an able paper on the "Improvement of the Agricultural Horse" in the Journal of the Bath and West of England Society:

"The Clydesdale may be placed between the heaviest and lightest draught horses, combining as he does the very valuable qualities of power and free action."

Allen, in his New American Farm Book, states that the "Clydesdales are among the best heavy dray horses in the country, and late importations have refreshed the breed with additional choice specimens.

Dear Sir:—Having used your Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites for some time in my practice, I have no hesitation in recommending it to my patients who are suffering from General Debility, or any disease of the lungs, knowing, that, even in cases utterly hopeless, it affords relief. Cobourg was visited Oct. 5th by a disastrous fire which destroyed the best block in the town, entailing a loss of something like one hundred thousand dollars.

OTTAWA, Oct. 4.—Sir Charles Tupper returned to the city to-day. He was accompanied by Mr. Collingwood Schreiber, Chief Engineer of the Intercolonial.

The Street generally charges the recently published articles in Truth and the World to E. A. Prentice, once Mr. Chapleau's reputed financial agent in Great Britain for certain money loans required by the province.

The Governor-General reached Dillon, Montana, on Sunday, and started on Monday for Winnipeg.

The cold snap has been very severe not only in Canada but throughout the Eastern States. Snow fell at Bangor, Me.

The Government officials at Washington say that Canada has not a good claim to Wrangel Land, as our colours have never been hoisted there. The cute Yankees might lay claim to a good deal of Canadian territory under the same principle.

In interviews had yesterday with the Rev. Dr. Sutherland, the Rev. S. J. Hunter, and Mr. John Macdonald, returned delegates to the Œcumenical Council, they give their impressions and the probable results of the gathering. A greater liberality of spirit, union among several of the Methodist bodies, an impetus to the evangelizing work, and a confirmation of the belief in the efficacy of the peculiar methods adopted by the Methodist bodies are some of the good results indicated.

The six story building of Ste. Therese (Que.) College was burned to the ground yesterday. Some pictures, books, and other valuable articles were saved. About twelve other buildings, mainly sheds and barns, were destroyed, and the whole village would doubtless have followed but for the assistance rendered by the Montreal fire brigade.

The letter of the Globe London correspondent predicts the nearly certain passage of a land bill for Scotland in 1882. He points out that the agitation has spread to England, and that Hodge has wakened up to a sense of the necessity for some change being made for the better in his position. The letter also gives some interesting details as to Newgate Prison, whose fate has been sealed on sanitary grounds chiefly, and enumerates briefly the many high positions of trust held by Sir Henry Tyler, Chairman of the Grand Trunk Railway of Canada.

The circumstance of Capt. W. D. Andrews, of Toronto, having gallantly saved two young men, Hugh O'Neill and George Goldstone, from drowning in Toronto Bay, on the 29th July, has been brought to the attention of the Royal Humane Society, and the society has resolved to present Capt. Andrews with a medallion in recognition [illegible]

Under Mr. Mackenzie's rule the workmen besieged the parliament buildings with demands for work to keep them from starving. Now, we learn that labor is so scare in Ottawa that persons have to resort to the most extraordinary shifts to obtain workmen. They have even stood at the church doors on Sunday making their offers. The workingman is not demanding, he is in demand.

BELLEVILLE, Oct. 4.—News has been received here that John McDonald, of this city, and Frank McDonald, of Deseronto, had been lynched by a mob at Menominee, Mich., on Sept. 30th. They had been arrested on the charge of murdering a man in a row, and a mob took them from the gaol and hung them. John McDonald was about twenty-four years of age. His widowed mother and several sisters live on Wharf street. He bore a good character here.

PETERBORO', Oct. 4.—The trial of Nelson Hamlin for the murder of Joseph Larocque on the 4th September took place at the assizes here to-day before his honor judge Armour. Mr. D. W. Dumble of this city defended the prisoner, and Mr. Ashton Flether, of Woodstock, appeared for the Crown. A verdict of manslaughter was returned.

The assessment in Ottawa now reaches $10,628,220, an increase of $427,610 over last year. The number of empty houses is less than last year, and the feeling in real estate is much improved.

It is semi-officially denied that Mr. Costigan has been offered the portfolio of Marine and Fisheries, or any other post in the Cabinet.

LONDON, Oct. 5. — The Standard says that Gen. Sir Patrick L. McDougall, commander of the troops at Halifax, N. S., will go to Ottawa on the departure of the Marquis of Lorne for England and be sworn in as administrator of the government in Canada during the Governor-General's absence.

At a meeting of the Sheffield branch of the Fair Trade League yesterday 3,000 persons were present. A motion in favor of fair trade was carried amid considerable opposition.

Sir Stafford Northcote, speaking at Beverley yesterday, in alluding to the land legislation for England, said the conservatives would heartily support any proposal giving tenants security for improvements on their holdings.

The death is announced of Sir John Karslake, Q. C., and formerly member of Parliament for Andover. In 1866 he was appointed solicitor-general and the following year became attorney-general, an office to which he was re-appointed in 1874. In the latter years of his life he was afflicted with total blindness.

Thirty years ago all New England country houses were white; fifteen years ago, grey or brown; now, all the tints and dyes of the rainbow are let loose on roof, rafter, wall, and pillar.

PETRIFIED FISH.—G. W. Driver, in recent explorations in the foot hills of the Cascade range, discovered in a wide ledge of conglomerate and trap rock the petrified remains of thousands of fish—salmon, smelt and cod. In attempting to remove specimens of each kind with implements at hand, they were broken, and proved to be as hard and white as flint, on the inside.

The elevation above the sea level is fully 1,500 feet where the petrifactions were found, and Mr. Driver assures us that perfectly formed fish can be found in countless thousands, proving conclusively that the country, at some period in the world's history, was wholly covered with water, and that the fish were thrown up by convulsive waves among the rocks where now discovered.—*P. That Rev. I. S. Kalloch has concluded not to complete his course of lectures in Portland, nor to come to Seattle, nor to Victoria; the slim and unappreciative audience at the first and only lecture (in Portland) having let him out. He went back to San Francisco last week.

GUITEAU.

HOW THE WRETCH LOOKED AND ACTED IN COURT.

Another Crank Wants to Shoot Him.

A Washington dispatch says: As soon as it became known that the arraignment of Guiteau was actually going to take place a very intense feeling of curiosity and interest was manifested. There was an unusual display of police force about the court room, although there were a large number of detectives present not uniformed. At a quarter past 11 o'clock the soldiers took seats at the lawyers' table, and immediately afterward the door of the witness room opened and gave entrance to Marshal Henry and two deputy marshals, having between them and hustling along the bowed and cowering figure of a man for whom they made way to a seat reserved for him beside his counsel. Then one of the guards unlocked his handcuffs, giving the prisoner the use of his hands. Guiteau seemed broken down in health and uncared for in person. His dark clothes were rusty and shabby, and his whole person presented a miserable, neglected appearance. After the excitement had subsided, District Attorney Corkhill rose and addressed the judge. He said the grand jury of the District of Columbia has indicted Charles J. Guiteau for the murder of James A. Garfield. The prisoner is in court. I ask that he be arraigned and required to plead to the indictment. The prisoner was ordered to stand and in a languid manner obeyed. The clerk said, "Is your name Charles J. Guiteau?" The prisoner assented by a nod.

The clerk then proceeded with the indictment. The prisoner stood with his head most of the time inclined to the right shoulder, eyes half closed or wholly so, hands crossed as if still handcuffed, and his general air that of a sickly appearance. The reading occupied nearly half an hour, and during all that time Guiteau hardly once changed his attitude or bearing, and barely opened his eyes. He did not manifest the slightest degree of interest for the court.

After reading the indictment the clerk said, "What say you to this indictment, guilty or not guilty?" The prisoner, in place of a response, fumbled in his waistcoat pocket and drew out a soiled and crumpled scrap of paper. The district attorney said imperatively, "Will you enter your plea of guilty or not guilty?" The prisoner replied, "I enter a plea of not guilty, if your honor please, of Garfield's death." Guiteau's counsel, Mr. Scoville, stated in his affidavit yesterday that he expected to prove by Dr. Hammond and Dr. Sims, of New York, and Dr. Gunn and Dr. Andrews, of Chicago, that the wound inflicted by Guiteau's bullet was not fatal and that death ensued from malpractice. Both of the Chicago physicians believe that the use of their names was simply a ruse to get a continuance. Dr. Andrews believes that the wound was fatal, while Dr. Gunn has expressed no opinion.

While Guiteau was being arraigned a large sized man approached some of the officers of the court and asked for the loan of a pistol. This inquiry caused suspicion, he was taken to police headquarters, where he gave his name as Geo. H. Bethard, and showed a diploma as a lawyer, issued him June 23d in Columbia, Ohio. He said he fought in Garfield's regiment and showed two gunshot wounds in the legs and a bayonet wound in the head, which he said he received at Shiloh. He heard Guiteau was to be arraigned today and intended shooting him at the city hall. He had been drinking.

Municipal Police Court.

(Before Hon. A. E. Pemberton.)

FRIDAY, Oct. 18th.

A charge of selling liquor to Indians was brought against Alexander Carmichael. Mr. Pollard appeared for the defence.

Two Indians charged with having gin in their possession on Monday last were discharged in order that their evidence might be taken in Carmichael's case.

Officer Sheppard sworn—Received a telephone message on Sunday from Mr. Goodhue and in consequence went over to the Gorge road; found the two Cowichan Indians with a bottle of gin each; arrested Johnny; asked him where he got the liquor, and he said at the saloon near the brick-yard on the hill; went with the Indian there yesterday and he pointed out the prisoner Carmichael as the person to whom he paid a dollar for the gin; having a warrant witness arrested Carmichael.

Johnny, a Cowichan Indian, sworn—Remembered the police officer taking a bottle of gin from him on Sunday afternoon; got the bottle from Carmichael at the saloon on the road near the brick-yard; paid a dollar for it; obtained the liquor inside the saloon.

In cross-examination by Mr. Pollard, witness said that he knew the prisoner because he was always giving whisky to Indians.

To Supt. O'Connor—The other Indian, named Charley, was with him when the prisoner gave him the liquor; there was no one else in the saloon at the time; prisoner took the bottle from among a number of others in the saloon.

Charley, the other Indian, sworn—Said his name was Johnny; the last witness got a bottle of gin at a saloon on the Saanich road; recognized the prisoner as the man who supplied Johnny with the bottle; he gave the prisoner one dollar for it.

Cross examined—Saw the bottle taken from behind the bar; knew the house because the Indians were in the habit of getting whiskey there; when Johnny got his bottle witness went in and got a bottle too.

This was the case for the prosecution.

John H. Meldrum, for the defence, sworn—Am the owner of the saloon in question; defendant had been staying with him for some time, and working in the brick-yard; he was not in his employ; was in the bar-room from 2 till 5 o'clock on Sunday; defendant was not in the bar room at all from shortly after 2 to 5 p.m., a man named McDonald was in the bar-room a considerable time during the afternoon; defendant was not in the room and could not have sold any liquor to any one.

Cross-examined by Supt. O'Connor—Carmichael has not sole control of witness' saloon; would swear positively that defendant could not have sold liquor to any one on Sunday afternoon between 2 and 5 o'clock, nor between 12 and 2.

To the Court—Did not see the defendant from 12 to between 5 and 6 o'clock; he could not have left the house without some one seeing him; the back room was not fastened.

His Honor considered it would be in the interests of justice to adjourn the case. Either the prisoner was guilty or the Indian witnesses had sworn falsely.

Mr. Pollard had another witness to examine entirely disconnected with the house.

The case was adjourned.

A similar charge was brought against the prisoner of selling a bottle of liquor to Peter, a Victoria Indian, on Monday afternoon.

Officer Walsh, on being sworn, stated that he proceeded to Mr. Meldrum's saloon in company with officer Sheppard and arrested prisoner on a warrant; was riding on an express wagon when he saw Peter go up to the saloon door with another Indian; suspected Peter had a bottle of liquor in his possession; got off the wagon and went close up to him when Peter took a bottle from inside his coat and handed it to the other Indian, who broke it against the fence; witness arrested Peter and took him to Meldrum's saloon, and he pointed out Carmichael as the man who gave him the bottle; there was some one else in the saloon; picked up the broken pieces of bottle afterwards out of the water.

Cross-examined by Mr. Pollard—Could not swear that the pieces of bottle were from the one that the Indian smashed; could not swear as to what was in it; would not swear positively that Peter was in possession of an intoxicant on Monday; when the bottle was about being broken he smelt the gin, was about the width of the court room when the bottle was broken, he was 15 or 20 feet away at the time; would swear that the smell of gin came from the bottle that the Indian had broken; the top and brand picked up correspond with the other bottles produced.

Officer Sheppard's testimony corroborated that of the preceding witness. He further swore that Peter said it was a small bottle and he paid five bits for it.

Peter, the Victoria Indian, sworn—Was arrested because he had a bottle, the one that was broken; got it from the defendant; paid five bits for it; got it at the back door of the house; did not see what was in the bottle before it was broken, but he believed it was gin; he bought it for gin; knew the defendant well; the other Indian gave him money to get the gin with; was afraid when the police came and handed the bottle to the other Indian who threw it down and broke it; the other Indian then went away and witness was arrested.

Cross-examined—Saw the defendant reach the bottle from a shelf before it was handed to him; did not know what the bottle was broken against; had been there before for gin.

Mr. Pollard asked for an adjournment of this case as he was prepared to show at the next sitting of the court that the last witness' evidence was perfectly worthless.

Supt. O'Connor stated that he would have to keep the Indians in gaol, as they were guilty of perjury if Carmichael had not supplied them with the intoxicant.

His Honor did not see why the Indians should not be discharged as there was nothing against them now.

Court adjourned till Friday.

SAVED BY THEIR MOTHERS.—Two heroic mothers exhibited their maternal affection in a marked manner in Oregon last week. One of the mothers seeing her child's clothing in a blaze enveloped the little one in a blanket and extinguished the flames. The child was but slightly burned, but the mother's hands were burned to the bone. Another mother at Corvallis saw her little girl in a burning tent and rushing in dragged her out. The child having inhaled hot air died the next day.

CANNED SALMON.—There are now 50,000 cases of canned salmon stored in the warehouses of Messrs. Welch, Rithet & Co. in this city awaiting shipment.

PRESIDENT ARTHUR'S CABINET.

The Latest Speculations as to its Personnel.

The cabinet situation as sketched by the Chicago Times is like this: McVeagh and James will not remain. For Secretary of State he has already selected Ex-Senator Frelinghuysen; for Secretary of Treasury, Judge Folger, of New York, subject to James' retirement; for Attorney General it is divided between two men, (with probability of a third being selected) Ex-Secretary Boutwell, of Massachusetts, and B. H. Brewster, of Philadelphia. These two men are so equally balanced in the President's favor that the Attorney Generalship may go to a third man, perhaps Phillips, of North Carolina, the present Solicitor General; the Secretary of War is certain to be Robert T. Lincoln, present incumbent. The new Secretary of the Navy will probably be General Ned S. Beal, Grant's old Minister to Vienna. General Beal is a Republican of this district, and always entertains Gen. Grant when the latter is in the city. The Postmaster Generalship has been partially promised to Ex-Senator Horre, of Wisconsin. The Interior Department lies between Ex-Senator Sargent of California and a prominent Washington Ex-Senator. Conkling is said to be sick and absolute rest is prescribed by his physician. It is added that he has advised the President not to send for him as he will not accept office. The cabinet as sketched above is thoroughly with Grant in sympathy.

White passengers numbered over 90, also 152 Chinamen and 10 Indians. She had considerable general freight and 50 barrels of salmon. Weather was rough on the gulf and coming round Trial island. On Monday night there was a severe storm of wind and rain at Yale. The river is still falling, but not so rapidly as last week. Tide not being favorable the 25-ton locomotive was not taken up last trip; she will take it up next trip if it can be shipped.

PERSONAL.—Hon. Mr. Trutch arrived down last night from the upper country. He has been as far as Kamloops.

SMITH RANSOM kept an offensive groggery at Longmeadow, Massachusetts, and one of the ministers prayed in a public meeting that God would remove him from the face of the earth. Ransom was found, a few mornings afterward, murdered in his bed. The case is peculiar in another respect than this coincidence. Luther Bridge, a sot, was seen on the previous afternoon gesticulating wildly in the back yard of the saloon. When arrested he voluntarily confessed that he had broken open the back door with an ax and struck Ransom with the blunt side of the instrument. The wounds which killed Ransom had been made with a blunt heavy weapon. Nail marks on the door were such as might have been made by kicks with Bridge's boots. These circumstances were taken at first as conclusive that Bridge was the murderer, but his guilt is now doubted. It is certain that Ransom was lifted from the floor and put on the bed after being killed, and this could not have been done by Bridge without staining his clothes with blood, of which not a drop could be found on him. The murder was committed late on Saturday afternoon, and all the members of a rough gang of quarrymen in the neighborhood swear they were not in Ransom's place that evening, though they had not missed a Saturday night carousal there before in a year. Bridge must have done the deed between 5 and 6 p. m., if at all, as at the latter time he was arrested in another part of the village for intoxication, and two reputable, disinterested witnesses swear they saw Ransom alive and unhurt as late as 8. The present belief in Longmeadow is that some of the quarrymen committed the murder, and that Bridge only imagined in his delirious drunkenness that he was guilty.

DELAYED DISPATCHES.

EUROPE.

DUBLIN, Oct. 15.—James J. O'Kelly, member of parliament, and Wm. O'Brien, editor of the land league organ, United Ireland, were arrested this morning. Arthur O'Connor, member of parliament, has not yet been arrested, although Superintendent Malloon has a warrant against him. It is supposed he has escaped from the country.

DUBLIN, Oct. 15.—John Dillon, M. P., was arrested this afternoon charged with treasonable practices and lodged in Kilmainham jail.

PARIS, Oct. 15.—Patrick Eagan, of the land league telegraphed the following message this morning from this city: To Hon. W. E. Forster, chief secretary for Ireland: "I charge that a conspiracy existed among the soldiers now stationed in Limerick to fire without orders upon the people on the first opportunity that offers. I further charge that this has been known to your government for several days and that you still culpably allow these men to remain in the country, and I say if under the circumstances any such occurrence takes place the whole civilized world will hold you accountable for the slaughter of my countrymen.

DUBLIN, Oct. 16.—The arrest of Dillon causes a most intense feeling. An immense crowd assembled in Sackville street, opposite the Imperial Hotel, where members of the league are in the habit of staying in view of the possibility of Biggar's making a speech. After resisting the attempt of the police to disperse them they followed Biggar to the office of the league. This morning a further warrant was served on Parnell charging him with being reasonably suspected of having since September 30th been guilty of treasonable practices as principal. Dillon was arrested at his own residence and accompanied to jail by a mounted escort. The whole affair was managed so quietly and promptly that the public were not aware of the arrest until the issuance of special editions of evening papers announcing it.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—A Dublin correspondent says there is no fear of a popular outbreak, as the hearts of the mass of people are not in favor of such a movement. In accordance with a resolution of the league, passed Thursday, tradesmen in Dublin closed their shops, owing to the arrest of Parnell. A man with a bugle paraded the streets warning people to close. A number refused, but eventually closed, owing to intimidation of a crowd of persons.

LONDON, October 16. Inspectors of county police throughout Ireland have received orders directing that after a certain hour men shall be confined to barracks except when on duty, when they shall be armed with loaded rifles and formed into large parties.

The land league has sent a messenger to Holyhead to prevent Healy quitting England.

There will be a mass meeting Sunday in Phoenix park, Dublin, to protest against Parnell's arrest.

At a meeting of 3000 persons in Belfast on Friday, at which twenty Catholic priests were present, a general strike against rent was advocated as long as Parnell remains in prison. A similar meeting was held at Limerick.

A bomb, with a lighted fuse, was thrown into the house of O'Grady, a Mill street solicitor. No one injured, but damaged considerable property.

DUBLIN, Oct. 16.—The Gazette publishes a proclamation signed by Forster, chief secretary, warning persons guilty of intimidating others not to pay rents, or coercing them to abandon their lawful employment, or to join the land league, will be liable to arrest.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Patrick Egan, treasurer of the Irish national land league, telegraphs from Paris: "We call upon every Irish nationalist and every friend of liberty, justice and humanity, to stand by us in the coming crisis. Although further arrests and even wholesale slaughter of the Irish people is determined by the Gladstone ministry, our banner will be borne onward. Landlordism is doomed, and British rule in Ireland has seen the beginning of its end."

LONDON, Oct. 15.—The Times says: Gladstone can afford to disregard the taunt which is certain to be flung at him, that Parnell's arrest was due to offensive personalities. In this ruling of law there is no fear the cabinet will not receive hearty and unwavering support from every party in the three kingdoms. The right of arrest is only denied here and there by a few associations, which habitually mistake license for liberty.

The United Ireland, organ of the league, publishes an article headed "Parnell Garroted," which states that Saxon cowardice has done its worst. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Hurley. There is great activity among Irish organizations in London, and circulars are distributed urging organization of meetings.

Since the arrest of Parnell threatening letters of unusual character have been received by Gladstone and Harcourt, secretary state for the home department.

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—A meeting of the presidents of the various Irish associations in this city was held to-night to make arrangements for the mass meeting which has been postponed until Monday next. A telegram of encouragement and sympathy was cabled to Dillon.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—The gale damaged property severely all over the country, killed several, injured many, and unroofed houses. Forty-five fishermen are reported lost at Barnmouth and Ryemouth, Scotland. During the gale the British steamer Cyprian, from Liverpool for Genoa, was wrecked on the Welsh coast and 22 lives lost.

By falling off a roof at Stockton on-Tees, five persons were killed.

EASTERN STATES.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—The department of state is informed that the expected deficit in the wheat crop of France will be 58,000,000 bushels, which must be supplied mainly from the United States, the crops of neighboring countries being far from what was anticipated. RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 16.—A hostile meeting took place this afternoon about ten miles from Richmond, between Capt. H. H. Riddleberger and Hon. G. D. Wise. Four rounds were fired without either being hurt. Mutual explanations and an amicable adjustment followed.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Steinway Hall was crowded to night at the reception of P. O'Conner, member of Parliament and delegate from Ireland. Ten thousand people struggled for admission. When O'Conner was presented, men and women rose to their feet, and there was such a waving of hats and handkerchiefs and vociferous cheering that many minutes passed before he could make audible a single word. When quiet was measureably restored, O'Conner said: "It was true they had imprisoned Parnell, their leader and advocate, a man who had entered into the fight though a landlord himself, for the simple purpose to see justice done an oppressed people. It is true he is imprisoned, but the British Government, if they wish to confine every leader and supporter of the movement would need every jail in the world and would not then have room enough in which to confine prisoners. Neither could the present action of the Government stamp out the hearts of old Ireland's sons, and the movement was even strong enough to defy all the power and authority of England." O'Conner concluded by asking all present to give their heartful support to the movement. Dr. Sellon Ergan, associate of O'Conner, made a short address, and was followed by Mrs. Parnell, mother of the Irish agitator, and by other persons prominent in the movement. O'Conner and Ergan, at the close, were visited at their hotel by representatives of the Land League.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Late to-night Senator Mahone was arrested at the instance of Samuel Strong, an old resident, who had received information he believed from reliable source that Gen. Jubal A. Early had challenged Mahone to a duel, and that the latter had accepted the challenge. Mahone was taken to the residence of Judge Snell of the police court, where he denied having received a challenge from Early, saying the latter was too old and feeble to fight, and adding that all their differences had been harmonized. Mahone was released on his personal bond and returned home. He will appear on Monday.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—In sending invitations to foreign representatives attending the Yorktown celebration secretary Blaine omitted the British legation from motives of delicacy. He thought as the event was a celebration of the defeat of the British troops, probably the British embassy might feel aggrieved at being invited to witness it. To-day he was reliably informed that the members of the British legation would be pleased with the opportunity to visit Yorktown and witness the celebration, and the secretary immediately extended an invitation to the legation to accompany him to Yorktown as his guests on his own boat.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 15.—Complete but unofficial returns from the entire state show republican gains of 11,446, and a democratic gain of 6,389. Net republican gain 5,057.

NEW YORK, Oct 15.—The Journal to-day says: It has been reported within a few days that Edwin Booth and wife had separated and the rumor is now confirmed. The formal separation occurred on Friday last. The sad event will be regarded with sincere regret by many friends of both parties. It affects Mr. Booth seriously, as he is devotedly attached to his wife and appears to be in a condition of mind which will make a reconcilliation, should it be desired by Mrs. Booth, easy. The estrangement arose in connection with certain business transactions within the family.
